From the Vicar

Hello all,

Today we say goodbye to Maureen and Catherine as they move on to pastures new. On the one hand this is sad; we will miss them and their ministries among us and on the other it is the cause of celebration that God is calling them to something new. Today is also Trinity Sunday and one of the theological terms to describe the relationship of Father, Son and Holy Spirit is the word, Perichoresis! This means, literally, to dance around!

Showing the Trinity is a dynamic and ever-changing entity which embraces movement yet always stays in relationship. We are called to mirror this relationship and embrace a changing and dynamic life. Catherine and Mo leaving us will be a massive change for them and for us, but it is exciting. The reason we resist change so much is that we focus too much on what we are losing rather than what we might gain. We pray for Mo and Catherine to embrace this next chapter in their lives and ministries, just as we pray for what exciting new things God might have in store for us who remain.

Yours in Christ,
Revd Andy Simpson
